8-Hour, 2-Evening Training with Certification:

Prepare for your Connecticut Security Officer Guard License with LJB Security Training.

Upon successful completion of this course, you will be issued a training certificate, required to accompany your licensure application, to the Connecticut Department of Emergency Services and Public Safety.

This dynamic course covers information about the Security Industry, how to be a Security Officer, and job exploration. Connecticut laws will be reviewed, pertaining to: the security industry, self defense and the use of force, and citizen's arrest. In addition, you will learn about: the use of force continuum, fire safety, the history of security, work place violence, terrorism, communication skills, and more.

Administrative directives for Security Officer's Training Certification Identification Card from the Department of Emergency Services and Public Protection Division of State Police Special Licenses & Firearms Unit, will be distributed and reviewed during training, outlining: Application-fees, Fingerprinting-fees, FBI Background Inquiry-fees, State of CT Background Inquiry-fees, and additional requirements, such as, a copy of your current CT Driver's License and Papers of Naturalization, if applicable.

Eligibility: Must be at least 18 years of age with no felony record and no sexual offenses.

PLEASE NOTE: There is a state statute that waives the class mandate as a prerequisite for licensure obtainment to: veterans honorably discharged within 2-years, active military, reserves and national guard, and some retired law enforcement officers.
